AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS:

- 1. (Currently Amended) A tip for oculistic surgery, particularly for the removal of a 2 cataract, said tip having a proximal joint end and a distal end, which contacts [the] crystalline
  3 during a surgical intervention, wherein the distal end which contacts a corneal or sclera tissue
- 2. (Previously Amended) The tip according to claim 1, wherein said treatment is is coated with an anti-friction treatment, based on carbon and tungsten carbide.

carried out by a PVD (Physical Vapour Deposition) technique.

- 3. (Previously Amended) The tip according to claim 1, wherein a thin layer of chromium  $(Cr_1)$  is applied during the treatment, to improve adhesion of the subsequent depositions.
- 4. (Previously Amended) The tip according to claim 1, wherein said proximal joint end is subjected to polishing.
- 5. (Previously Amended) The tip according to claim 1, wherein said end is shaped with different angles and geometry.
  - 6. (Previously Cancelled)

4

2

1